High capacity auto cut reserve paper towel dispenser

POD is a unique reserve roll mechanical auto cut paper hand towel dispenser that has one of the largest paper capacities on the market. Thanks to its patented reserve roll loading system, a new roll can be loaded before the previous one has been fully used thus making sure no paper is wasted. This reserve feature can save up to 20% of paper consumption*.

POD is the most compact reserve paper hand towel dispenser available on the market and has been designed to accommodate a large variety of paper types: different lengths, 1ply, 2 ply the choice is yours. With its sleek and contemporary design, a full transparent cover to allow quick paper level inspection, the POD is an excellent choice for an efficient and stylish hand drying.

POD is also available in a standard, single roll variant.
